Immediate Report Regarding Economic Administrative Petition

Further to the immediate report dated May 19, 2014 (reference no. 2014-01-067671), the Company wishes to report that on June 24, 2014 an economic administrative petition was filed to the District Court of Tel Aviv-Jaffa (Economic Department) by C.F.A. Drilling Ltd., which claims to be a shareholder of the Company (and which had previously filed a motion for certification of class action against the Company, as the Company reported in its immediate report of August 29, 2013 (reference no. 2013-01-132813) (the "Petitioner")), against the Company and the Israeli Securities Authority ("ISA").

The Petitioner asks the Court to instruct the cancellation of the ISA's decision dated June 10, 2014, that was delivered to the Petitioner and in which ISA rejected the Petitioner's request to instruct the Company to publish in its website a copy of the full arbitration award which was given on May 19, 2014 in an arbitration between the State of Israel and the Company's subsidiary Dead Sea Works Ltd. (the "Arbitration Award"), and for which the Company published immediate reports on May 19, 2014 and May 27, 2014 (references no. 2014-01-067671 and 2014-01-074112, respectively). Furthermore, the Court was asked to determine that the Company will publish the Arbitration Award.

The Company believes that its reports as aforementioned were published in accordance with any applicable law, and with the assistance of its legal counsels is examining the petition and will consider its reaction.
