Decision by a Supreme Court in Belgium to Annul a Previous Judgment Regarding Recognition of Notion Deduction of Certain Expenses for Tax Purposes of a Subsidiary in Belgium

Further to Note 17(D) of the Company's Consolidated Annual Financial Statements for 2018, in connection with an appeal filed by Belgian tax authorities with the Belgian Supreme Court (Court of Cassation) against the resolution of a lower court (the "Previous Judgment"), the Company hereby reports that on May 24, 2019, a decision was rendered by the Belgian Supreme Court, annulling the Previous Judgment and remitting the case to a lower court in another region of Belgium (the "Rehearing").

. In light of the decision by the Supreme Court, the maximum potential accounting impact on the Company is about $27 million (that were paid in advance for prior years regarding this dispute). As the complete judgment, including the reasons underlying the Supreme Court's decision, has yet to be rendered, and in light of the difficulty in estimating, at this stage, the chances of the Company's claims being sustained within the aforementioned Rehearing, the Company is currently unable to estimate the outcome of these proceedings.
